

SHARE new mexico™

Animal Welfare

The Street Homeless Animal Project's mission is to assist the street homeless community in obtaining veterinary care and supplies for their companion animal. We collaborate with Smith's Veterinary Hospital and the Santa Fe Animal Shelter's Wellness clinic for spaying and neutering, vaccinations, routine check ups and preventive care, flea and tick removal, emergency care, surgery and medications. We also work closely with PetCo to provide food, leashes, and harnesses.

Details

Services

Domestic Animal Services Community Action/Social Advocacy Groups

Locations

Parent Organization

NM Street Homeless Animal Project (SHAP)

The Street Homeless Animal Project's mission is to assist the street homeless community in obtaining veterinary care and supplies for their companion animal. We collaborate with Smith's Veterinary Hospital and the Santa Fe Animal Shelter's Wellness clinic for spaying and neutering, vaccinations, routine check ups and preventive care, flea and tick removal, emergency care, surgery and medications. We also work closely with PetCo to provide food, leashes, and harnesses. You can call or text (505) 501-4933.

No Physical Address

Santa Fe, NM 87505

Mailing:

1000 Cordova Place, #34

Santa Fe, 87505

Phone: (505) 501-4933

Email: nmstreethomelessanimalproject@gmail.com

Primary Contact: Karen Cain

Contact Email: nnmshap@gmail.com

Type: Nonprofit

EIN: 800254858

<http://www.nmshap.org/>