

SHARE new mexico™

NM Women's Recovery Academy

Provides residential reentry treatment services designed to reduce recidivism. Programs and services currently offered at the New Mexico Women's Recovery Academy include individual risk/needs assessments, substance abuse programming, individual & group counseling, RDAP curriculum, family services/parenting skills, 12-Step meetings, anger management classes, educational/HSD/WorkKeys services, seeking safety groups, and domestic violence classes.

Details

Contact: Ben Saiz, Probation and Parole Supervisor

Contact Email: (505) 460-0745

Services

Employment & Training Parenting Education Behavioral Health & Substance Abuse Services
Behavioral Health Assessment & Treatment Substance Abuse Services Correctional System Housing

Locations

*6000 Isleta Blvd SW
Albuquerque, NM 87105*

Phone: (505) 873-2761

Parent Organization

NM Women's Recovery Academy

NMWRA is a GEO residential reentry center that focuses on peer-led education. The center functions as a modified therapeutic community and provides a highly structured environment for female residents referred by the New Mexico Department of Corrections.

*6000 Isleta Blvd SW
Albuquerque, NM 87105*

Phone: (505) 873-2761

Type: Forprofit