Not Forgotten Outreach Appreciation Ski Week

The Taos Ski Valley has partnered with Not Forgotten Outreach to provide Surviving Families, Veterans, Active Duty Military, National Guard, Reservist & their Families the opportunity to a six day event on the Sangre de Cristo Mountains for $40.00 lift tickets, free or reduced rentals, discounted ski lessons, daycare, and various other workshops.

NFO provides a FREE meal for 250 Military Family members during the ski week. Adaptive Skiers are also provided equipment & lessons. Wounded Warriors & Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS) are invited to utilize the weekend for their Retreats, to optimize the reach to the target population. This year NFO has a VA grant providing a scholarship to 5 active duty service members. This scholarship provides adaptive lessons, equipment, meals, and lodging for the week. The scholarship application, and pricing information can be found on the NFO facebook page and the NFO website notforgottenoutreach.org.
