Ohkay Owingeh Pueblo Public Health Nursing

Services provided by the PHN are population based with an emphasis on Primary Prevention. This includes promoting health, protecting against health threats to the community, and keeping problems from occurring in the first place. These services are provided to individuals, families, community and systems.

PHN services strive to be comprehensive and culturally appropriate for personal and public health.

Examples of Services include:

Disease and Health Investigations

Outreach

Case Finding

Screening

Referral and Follow up

Case Management
