Laura Hendrie speaking about dementia

As a dementia care educator and trainer, I offer public speeches about the brain and dementia, current dementia care issues and creative problem-solving techniques in dementia care using the Teepa Snow PAC® approach. I've done this for the last 6 years for all kinds of interesting groups, including both the Santa Fe police and Santa Fe Fire Departments, senior citizen groups, financial institutions, memory care centers (Montecito, Morning Star, and Kingston), local churches (St. Bede's, Quakers, Unitarian Universalist, The Celebration), and caregiver companies (Home Instead, Coming Home Connection, Life Circle and the Alzheimer's Association.)
