Phame Inc

Phame, Inc. is a non-profit organization dedicated to provide habilitation services to people with developmental disabilities. We offer a comprehensive array of critical supports including Adult Habilitation, Community Access, and Individual Supported Employment. We will work together to open possibilities for people with developmental disabilities so that they have an opportunity to become valued members of our community. We use art as a method to work on certain skills such as communication, watching, listening and flexibility, which can be used in any environment and situation.
