School for Oral Deaf Education

PEI offers an Oral School focusing on teaching children with hearing loss and speech delays to speak, listen and learn by providing an educational environment that fosters oral communication. PEI's Parent Infant Program provides services for families of children with hearing loss. Through this program parents learn how to cope with and understand their infant's hearing loss. Parents also receive information and support, and begin to consider communication options for their deaf or hard-of-hearing children. PEI's Speech and Language Therapy Program provides diagnostic and treatment services for children with speech and language delays as well as those that have hearing loss. Our Occupational Therapist also provides services to the children in the school. Our onsite Audiologist ensures that children are hearing well with their devices so that they can hear well in order to learn to speak.

Parent Organization

Presbyterian Ear Institute

Presbyterian Ear Institute exists to assist people with hearing loss to better listen and speak and integrate into mainstream society. The Institute offers hope in breaking the silence for children and adults, and provides a comprehensive approach to the early diagnosis, intervention, education and rehabilitation of deafness. In fulfilling its mission, and through the programs and services offered, PEI works daily to mitigate the lifelong effects that hearing loss has on literacy, educational achievement and vocational opportunities.
