Santa Ana Pueblo Tribal Court

The Santa Ana Tribal Court is one of two courts within the Judicial Branch of the Pueblo of Santa Ana tribal government. As a court of general jurisdiction, the Contemporary Court hears many types of cases including but not limited to traffic, criminal, civil matters including probate, children and families in need of services, custody, child support, and civil disputes. The Pueblo of Santa Ana Contemporary Court has criminal jurisdiction over Indians enrolled in a federally-recognized tribe when the offense is committed within the boundaries of the Santa Ana Pueblo Reservation.
