Children's Chorus of Rio Rancho

The Children's Chorus of Rio Rancho offers musical instruction in a welcoming, open, and fun environment. Singers are encouraged to use their voice to create music together with children in a healthy and pleasing manner. They will learn proper breath control, tone production, pitch and rhythmic accuracy, and elementary musicianship. Through the group's musical instruction and performance experience, CCRR hopes to instill confidence and self-esteem, skills that will serve our members for life. CCRR unites children of diverse backgrounds by bringing them together with the common thread of music. CCRR also advances the role of children making community art by offering a public performance at the end of each season.

Parent Organization

Rio Rancho Creative Crossroads

Rio Rancho Creative Crossroads' mission is to be a leading regional artistic organization and to be an interactive, collaborative contributor to the cultural life of our community through art and cultural enrichment.

Created in response to dwindling budgets for arts programs in our local public-school system, Rio Rancho Creative Crossroads raises awareness about the importance of the arts, offers a variety of opportunities for local youth and adults to participate in the arts, and fosters a love and respect for the arts and a sense of belonging and empowerment within our community.
