San Juan College Student Success Center/Adult Basic Education

Programs include Adult Basic Education (ABE) and Learning Support Services (LRNS). ABE Classes serve students who are 16 years of age and older who don't have a High School Diploma. ABE classes range from literacy, English as a Second Language (ESL), and GED Preparation. Learning Support services include course work in basic skills development, study skills workshops, computer assisted instruction in the SMART Lab, and peer-tutoring for college students.
