Market Vendor Training & Professional Development

Farmers don't often have expendable income or much free time. This limits the professional development opportunities that they can participate in, which can limit their ability to grow their business. We collaborate with local and national experts to provide a Training & Professional Development Program for Market vendors and potential new vendors. We offer scholarships to outside trainings and organize workshops of our own to help our vendors improve their skills, share knowledge, and strengthen their businesses.

Santa Fe Farmers' Market Institute

The Santa Fe Farmers' Market Institute is the non-profit sister organization to the Santa Fe Farmers' Market. Our mission is to advocate for farmers, ranchers and other land-based producers; provide equitable access to fresh, local food; own and operate a year-round venue for the Santa Fe Farmers' Market; and manage programs to help sustain a profitable, locally-based agricultural community.
