

SHARE new mexico™

Teen Parent Program

The Teen Parent Program offers pregnant and parenting teens the support needed to graduate from high school, support them in continuing their education beyond high school, provides preparation for the world of work, and teaches the skills to become nurturing parents, active citizens, and responsible members of their community.

Services include: case management; young fathers program; home visitor support; headstart nursery enrollment assistance; prenatal and parenting education.

Details

Ages: Teen

Documentation: No identification needed

Waiting List: Never

Contact: Elizabeth Alarid

Contact Email: ealarid@sfps.k12.nm.us

Services

Schools (K-12) Care/Case Management Parenting Education

Locations

*1300 Camino Sierra Vista
Santa Fe, NM 87505*

Phone: (505) 467-2827

Parent Organization

Santa Fe Public Schools

The Santa Fe Public Schools exists to ensure that every student graduates prepared to be a productive citizen of our local and global community.

*610 Alta Vista Street
Santa Fe, NM 87505*

Phone: (505) 467-2000

Email: community@sfps.info

Type:

Government

EIN: 856000169

<http://www.sfps.info/>