Scott's House

Scott's House operates by each patient first being registered with a Medicare hospice provider to serve as their primary care physician and hospice nurse. Each guest is assigned a private bedroom with access to a bathroom, the living quarters and the grounds. A kitchen is on site used and maintained by Scott's House staff and volunteers. Meals and personal laundry service are provided. Scott's House provides scheduling and coordination of hospice agencies and volunteers. Everything is provided free of charge.
