Self Help, Inc.

Self Help Inc., formed in 1969, is a non-profit organization dedicated to assisting those in need in northern New Mexico by providing crisis intervention, case management, advocacy and seed/education grants. Rather than only providing financial assistance, the staff encourages the clients to examine the root causes of their problems and then make changes to meet their needs. This support is for those in need in Pojoaque and points north. Call for appointment
