Parent Organization

Senior Citizens Law Office, Inc.

The mission of SCLO is to provide critically needed advocacy and legal representation to seniors sixty (60) years of age and older who reside in Central New Mexico in order to uphold their rights, maximize their autonomy and ensure that they receive the benefits to which they are entitled. For the purposes of this grant, SCLO's area of focus will be to enhance the housing security, economic stability and health care coverage and access for grandparents and other relatives (aged 60 and over) raising children under the age of 18. Stabilizing housing and acessing all income and health benefits to which the older relatives raising children are entiled will enhance the overall well-being of children and improve education outcomes.
