Senior Transportation

Santa Fe County Senior Services has reliable drivers providing transportation for seniors who live outside the city limits of Santa Fe to medical appointments, grocery shopping, volunteer projects, and miscellaneous errands.

Transportation reservations must be made by phone at least 3-5 days in advance. Those needing transportation assistance must participate in a simple registration process and be prepared to provide the dispatcher with their location, destination, designated time of appointment/pickup, and current contact number.

For additional information or to schedule transportation please call (505) 992-3069.
