Our mission is to provide long-term, individualized treatment options to young people (age 14-21) who are struggling with substance use disorders and co-occurring mental health disorders. We believe in providing the best possible treatment options by meeting the individual where they are and helping them create a life worth living on their terms. We are a transitional living treatment facility offering housing, education, job placement, life skills, and intensive person-centered and trauma-informed therapy services.
