Parent Organization

Southwest Capital Bank

At Southwest Capital Bank (SWCB), we believe in the power of relationships. We pride ourselves on being one of the few remaining family owned and operated banks in New Mexico, and believe that because our family started here, we have an obligation to support the communities we serve. We focus on supporting organizations that directly affect the diverse communities we serve and positively impact low-and-moderate income populations through initiatives focused on alleviating symptoms of poverty in Central and Northern New Mexico.
