Taos Historic Museums

Taos Historic Museums is a 501(c)3 nonprofit association of five separate museums whose unique historic buildings and exceptional collections present the art, history, and culture of Taos and northern New Mexico. Collections at the individual museums include prehistoric and contemporary Native American pottery, textiles, jewelry and art; Spanish colonial and contemporary devotional and domestic arts; and paintings by the Taos Society of Artists and the artists who made Taos one of America's premier art colonies. Each museum offers a broad range of artistic, historic, musical, and cultural exhibits, events, lectures, and classes as well as special programming for children.
