

Espanola Teen Center

The mission of the Espanola YMCA Teen Center is to build efficacy in youth through educational support and skill building activities, to create connections to their community, and to help the 800 youth we serve annually to foster healthy choices. We provide programming that promotes self-discipline, builds self-esteem and teaches 18 life skills programs essential to future success. Funding will support positive adult staff mentors, youth development programming and substance abuse prevention programming at the Española Teen Center.
