Young Men of Color Circles

Together for Brothers (T4B or 2GR4BR) is recruiting young (ages 11-24 years old) men of color (African American/Black, American Indian/Native, Asian Pacific Islander, Hispanic/Latino or Middle Eastern) and older (25 years old and older) men of color for the young men of color circle and older men of color circle to lead and learn together for improving the education, entrepreneurship, health and justice outcomes for boys and men of color.

- Young men of color attend weekly young men of color circles on Mondays from 5:30-7:30 at Young Women United, 309 Gold SW
- Older men of color attend monthly older/younger men of color circles on the first Monday of the month from 6:30-8:30 pm in locations across Albuquerque
- Young men of color have opportunities to present to middle or high school students or staff with community organizations and schools for stipends
- Please note that young men of color ages 11-17 years old will need parent or guardian permission to participate
