Vfw National Home for Children

MILITARY FAMILY PROGRAM: This program assists children - or a spouse and children - of members of the active - duty military, National Guard and Reserves. During a period of deployment, if their family plan falls through, the National Home stands VETERAN FAMILY PROGRAM: A veteran who is: a VFW member; in receipt of VA service-connected disability compensation; and in pursuit of VA Vocational Rehabilitation, may participate in this program. Sometimes, the veteran is eligible for Voc Rehab but SINGLE PARENT FAMILY PROGRAM: A single parent and his or her children may participate in this time-limited, goal oriented program that lasts from 1 to 3 years. All families have unique circumstances and needs, so specific goals are established and planned. RESIDENTIAL PROGRAM: This program, licensed by the State of Michigan, allows us to serve children who come to the VFW National Home for Children without a parent or guardian. Children live in single-family homes and are lovingly cared for by child care workers. Help children and families of veterans in your community. Assistance and connection to supportive services in your community are available nationwide by calling the National Home Helpline. Support for families during deployment. a military family can be helped during deployment. Deployed military members' children or their spouses with children can live at the National Home when an approved family plan isn't working out. Encouragement The VFW National Home for Children helps people from across the country in a variety of ways. Sometimes we connect families with supportive services in their own community. Other times, intensive case management assistance resolves pressing issues. O Support for families during deployment. a military family can be helped during deployment.
