Drop-In Center/Street Outreach

Drop-in center open Monday through Friday, also Sunday afternoons. Food (kitchen on-site), clothing, sleeping bags and hygiene items; referrals to resources including counseling, case management; housing. At the Drop-In Center, youth can take a shower, do laundry, use computers, and call family and friends.

Street Outreach Program provides street-based critical services such as food, water and blankets to youth up to age 25. At risk youth can not only receive immediate help and sustenance on the street, they are encouraged to visit the drop-in center for further services.
